Les 2 Alpes: a big ski resort with small prices

With its high-altitude ski area (at 3,600m, it is France's highest ski area), its events and its friendly atmosphere, Les 2 Alpes is a popular ski resort. It is also an affordable international destination offering very good value for money. In Les 2 Alpes, ski enthusiasts can enjoy the slopes until 23 April - 70% of the ski area is above 2,000m which guarantee skiing until the end of the season.

From 15 to 23 April, get 40% off your ski pass when you book your accommodation via Les 2 Alpes reservation. A 6-day pass costs €167.40 instead of €279. Apartments from €350 per week can be booked via Les 2 Alpes Reservation <https://booking.les2alpes.com/>

Les 2 Alpes offers a wide range of accommodation, including some for smaller budgets. In the last few years, two cool hostels have opened: The People hostel and Base Camp Lodge.

Base Camp Lodge, which is in the centre of the resort, has a dormitory where a bed costs €45 a night. The hostel also has comfy private rooms from €115 per night. Guests can make their own breakfast or can get breakfast at the hostel's restaurant for €10.

In Les 2 Alpes, you can eat out on a budget. Many restaurants offer a menu for less than €18.

Here are a few places to try: Les Lutins for local food, Yonder Café for healthy and vegetarian dishes, Soul Kitchen for fusion cuisine and Les Sagnes for delicious galettes and crepes. On the slopes, try Restaurant La Fée.

Les 2 Alpes has a great atmosphere and hosts fun events until the end of the winter.

Casaltitude is a new music festival with international DJ's. It will take place from 25 March to 1st April.

On 22nd April, Les 2 Alpes' pisteurs will once again organise a fun and informative event called La Patrolette. Come and learn about their work, take part in different activities before partying at 'Le bal des pisteurs' in the evening.
